

Content Objective: Students will select and describe a key leader from the Civil Rights movement.

Language Objectives:

- Read research information on their leader
- Write out key information about their leader
- Present the information about their leader to their classmates
- Actively listen as other students present information on their leader

Assessment: Oral, present information about their leader to their classmates

Pre/Early Production	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide guidelines for oral report • Provide list of key leaders from the Civil Rights movement • Provide a list of academic words and their definitions in the L1 and L2 • Conduct research in L1 and L2 • Write out key information for presentation on cue cards in L1 and L2 • Give presentation using realia or describing objects, posters, displays, or other support material
Speech Emergent	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide guidelines for oral report • Provide list of key leaders from the Civil Rights movement • Provide a list of academic words and their definition in L2 • Conduct research in L1 and L2 • Write out key information for presentation on cue cards in L1 and L2
Intermediate Fluency/Native	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide guidelines for oral report • Provide list of key leaders from the Civil Rights movement • Conduct research in L2 • Write our key information for presentation on cue cards in L2

Rubric:

	A	B	Let's Try Again
Pre/Early Production	Describes realia, objects, posters, displays, or other support material using one or two words Uses proper	Describes realia objects, posters, displays, or other support material using one or two words Uses proper	Unable to describe realia, objects, posters, displays, or other support material using one or two words Does not use proper

	presentation techniques majority of the time Oral report lasts 5-10 minutes	presentation techniques some of the time Oral report lasts 2-5 minutes	presentation techniques Oral report last less than 2 minutes Conference with the teacher
Speech Emergent	Describes and explains information on key leader using simple sentences Uses proper presentation techniques majority of the time Oral report lasts 5-10 minutes	Describes and explains information on key leader using one or two words Uses proper presentation techniques some of the time Oral report lasts 2-5 minutes	Unable to describe and explain information on key leader using simple sentences OR one or two words Does not use proper presentation techniques Oral report last less than 2 minutes Conference with the teacher
Intermediate Fluency/Native	Describes and explains information on key leader using complex sentences Uses proper presentation techniques majority of the time Oral report lasts 5-10 minutes	Describes and explains information on key leader using simple sentences Uses proper presentation techniques some of the time Oral report lasts 2-5 minutes	Unable to describe and explain information on key leader using complex sentences OR simple sentences Does not use proper presentation techniques Oral report last less than 2 minutes Conference with the teacher